

Ashley David is a candidate for a Masters in Marine Management from Dalhousie University and recently completed an internship with the Clean Foundation researching marine litter under the supervision of Dr. Peter Wells. During her time with the Clean Foundation, Ashley developed and delivered the award-winning Ship to Shore program. Ashley maintains her full-time position with the Provincial Environment Department.